HEAVY DAMAGE SUITS
AGAINST SHORE LINE.
Two For Ten Thousand Dollars Each Brought Against Trolley Co.

Shore Line Electric Trolley Co. has been made the defendant in a $10,000 suit brought against it by the estate of Private George W. Smith, a member of the Branford Battery, Field artillery, who met his death recently by being thrown from a horse and run over a trolley car in lower boulevard, New London. The suit is brought by Attorney Benjamin H. Hewitt of New London, as administrator of the estate of the deceased. Property of the defendant company was attached by Deputy Sheriff Manuel J. Martin, who served the papers on officials of the company in New London on April 24.
Private Smith was mounted on a horse in the yard of a stable in lower boulevard when the animal ran out of the yard and started across the street. The rider turned the horse in a westerly direction and was running along the highway when a trolley car approached from the rear. The operator of the car saw the horse come out of the yard into the street and saw the perilous and dangerous situation which the driver was placed but instead of stopping or slowing up the car he continued to carelessly and unskillfully operate the car at a high rate of speed.

The motorman, it is claimed, not only did not slacken the speed of the car but tried to pass the horse and rider. The animal became more frightened with the result that the soldier lost his seat and was thrown off the horse's back. When the trolley motorman did not stop the car or reduce its speed and it struck the fallen man and rolled him under the front of the car.

The soldier received a broken neck, fracture of the skull and other injuries which resulted in his death at a hospital. It is claimed that due care and caution by the trolley motorman could have avoided the accident.

Samuel Stevens of Pompano has brought suit against the Shore Line Electric Railway Co. for $10,000 for personal injuries and for the death of his horse caused by a trolley car incident in the Pompano road. The plaintiff claims that he was driving out of a private way into the highway when the car struck the vehicle and threw him out and injured him and his horse. The accident happened Nov. 26, 1916.

Miss Ellen O'Keefe of New London has brought suit against Dr. J. M.
McDonald, Dennison Brown, J. J. Murphy, P. H. & A. H. Chappell and C. L.
Wilson in action of interpleader. The plaintiff owes Mr. McDonald $1,000 on the contract price of the house, on which the latter has a mortgage. The defendants have placed mechanics' liens on the property. The plaintiff is willing to pay the money, but she asks the court to order the defendants to release the property and to return the money to her in full.

es Darcy, Australian Pugilist, Dead

Famous Fighter Died Thursday—Was a Member of Aviation Reserve Corps—Darcy Wonderful Specimen of Manhood.

New York, May 24.—Les Darcy, the Australian pugilist, who died in Memphis today, arrived in this country on the tank steamer Cushing Dec. 33 last year. Arrangements for him to meet George Carpenter, the French cur-weight champion, in a ten round bout here fell through because Carpenter declined to leave France while the war was in progress. Then came rumors that Darcy had left Australia and intentionally to avoid joining the British army and government. Whitman forbade him to appear in any glove contest in the state of New York.

Meanwhile the two boys were being promoted between Darcy and prominent light heavyweight and middleweight American boxers, but none of these matured. In Ohio and Louisiana the governors followed the lead taken by Governor Whitman. Darcy never appeared in a real ring contest in this country.

Darcy died at about 1.45 o'clock.
Manager Gilmore and Trainer Hawkins were at the bedside. Gilmore immediately sent a cablegram to the dead man's mother in Australia and the body will be held pending instructions from her.

Darcy had enlisted in the aviation reserve corps shortly before he was taken ill. At that time he was pronounced by Captain Charles G. Gilchrist, in charge of the corps, as the most perfect specimen of manhood that had been applied for enlistment in the corps.

"BEAN BALL" BRUTAL.
National Commission Rules Against Use of Ball Thrown to Hit Batter.
Chicago, May 24.—Pitchers convicted of using the "bean ball," a highly dangerous ball thrown directly at a batter's head, will be expelled from organized baseball as a result of a ruling by the national commission here today. The ruling was directed alone to players in the major leagues, but to every member of clubs operating under the national agreement.

Chairman Herrmann characterized the "bean ball" as brutal and added that he would force himself to believe that a pitcher would deliberately hurt a ball at a batter's head with the intention of injuring him. President Johnson of the American league had previously declared that a pitcher found guilty of using the ball deserved a full sentence.

Herrmann asserted that no specific cases had enforced the ruling but that generally reports of main pitchers were using the delivery resulted in it.
Expulsion of a player for use of the illegal ball means that he cannot be employed by a club operating under the national agreement for at least five years, and he will not be considered in league.

The commission made tentative plans to play Sunday games in six eastern cities—New York, Brooklyn, Washington, Philadelphia, Boston and Pittsburgh. The games will be donated to the army and navy for a war relief fund. The commission suggested that
